

Project design worksheet

1. Title - what would you like to call this project?
2. Members - please provide the names of all your team members, as well as your mentor and teachers.
3. Project description - What scientific concept or story of scientific discovery are you trying to tell with this project? Describe it in a few paragraphs.
 - a. Why do you think more people should learn about this concept or story? What is the importance of it? (1 paragraph)
 - b. In words that your classmates will be able to understand, please explain the story or concept behind your baking project (1-2 paragraphs).
4. Project design - What will your project look like? Please include a short description and a sketch or diagram.
5. Plan of execution - How do you intend to produce this project? Include a timeline to bake everything.
6. Declaration of ingredients for dietary restrictions - Do you plan to use common allergens or animal products in this project? Common allergens according to the FDA include: Milk, Eggs, Tree nuts (e.g., almonds, walnuts, pecans), Peanuts, Wheat, and Soybeans.
7. Budget - Provide an itemized list of ingredients (in market price) your team needs to bake the project.